STUDENT ADMINISTRATION & EXAMINATION OFFICE

Prospective students can obtain information about admission and entry requirements at Schmalkalden University of Applied Sciences from the staff of the Student Administration Office. The application process for all Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes, including admission and enrolment, is handled by the Student Administration Office. During your studies, you can contact the staff of the Student Administration Office for administrative matters, such as information on re-registration, leave of absence, change of degree programme, guest and secondary enrolment, as well as de-registration and long-term study fees.

The staff of the Examination Office organise the examination periods in consultation with the five faculties and are responsible for coordinating the recording of grades. If you have any questions about examination registration, the Examination Office is the right point of contact. They also prepare and issue transcripts.

Location: Building A, Room 0001
 Office hours: Monday to Friday: 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.,
 Tuesday and Thursday: 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

CAREER SERVICE

The Career Service at Schmalkalden University of Applied Sciences bridges the gap between your studies and your career. It supports German students from an early stage in preparing for a successful transition to working life. This includes personalised guidance in German on career direction, building your professional profile, and career planning, as well as help with job applications and organisation of recruitment events, workshops, and training sessions.

The Career Service also serves as a key contact for employers seeking interns, working students, or graduates. The team also coordinates support for part-time and dual study programmes, Germany Scholarships, and alumni services.

International Career Service (ICS)

As part of the Career Service, the International Career Service (ICS) provides specialised support for international students and graduates. All services are provided in English. The ICS offers individual career counselling, application support aligned with German recruitment standards, and guidance on internships, working student positions, and entry-level employment. Workshops, company visits, and networking events support a smooth transition from studies to employment in Germany.

STARTERWERK START-UP SUPPORT

Start-up support at Schmalkalden University of Applied Sciences is provided through the StarterWerk, the university's central hub for entrepreneurship. The StarterWerk supports students, researchers, alumni, and staff at all stages of the start-up journey – from initial idea development to company formation. Core services include individual start-up counselling, feedback on business ideas, support with business models and pitches, access to workshops and competitions, and guidance on funding opportunities such as EXIST.

The StarterWerk is an active partner in the StarTH – Thüringer Hochschulgründungsnetzwerk, which connects all public universities in Thuringia. Through this network, founders in Schmalkalden benefit from shared programmes, joint events, specialised expertise at other locations, and access to a broad regional ecosystem of mentors, investors, and partners. This close cooperation strengthens start-up support locally while embedding it in a state-wide innovation and entrepreneurship framework.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES OFFICER

The Equal Opportunities Officer works to ensure that the constitutionally guaranteed equal opportunities for women and men are upheld at the university and collaborates closely with the university management to this end. Support is provided by a deputy, an adviser, and the Advisory Board for Equal Opportunities.

- Equal opportunities for women and men
- Balancing family and studies
- Qualifications and career planning for women
- Equality aspects in appointment and recruitment procedures
- Sexual discrimination, harassment, or violence

Psychosocial Counselling (Psychosoziale Beratung, PSB) is available free of charge to all students at universities in Thuringia who feel the need to talk to a neutral person about themselves, their situation, and their problems. The service supports students in finding solutions and rediscovering their skills and strengths. All consultations are confidential and take place at individually agreed appointments.

You can contact the service if, for example, you:

- Suffer from learning and work disorders
- Have difficulty interacting with other people
- Are experiencing conflicts with parents, in a relationship, or in a shared apartment
- Often feel overwhelmed and insecure
- Are tormented by examination anxiety and other fears
- Experience depressive moods
- Are at risk of addiction or are addicted (to the internet, drugs, food, etc.)
- Often doubt yourself and/or your studies
- Feel that your studies are becoming a never-ending story
- Need information about psychotherapy

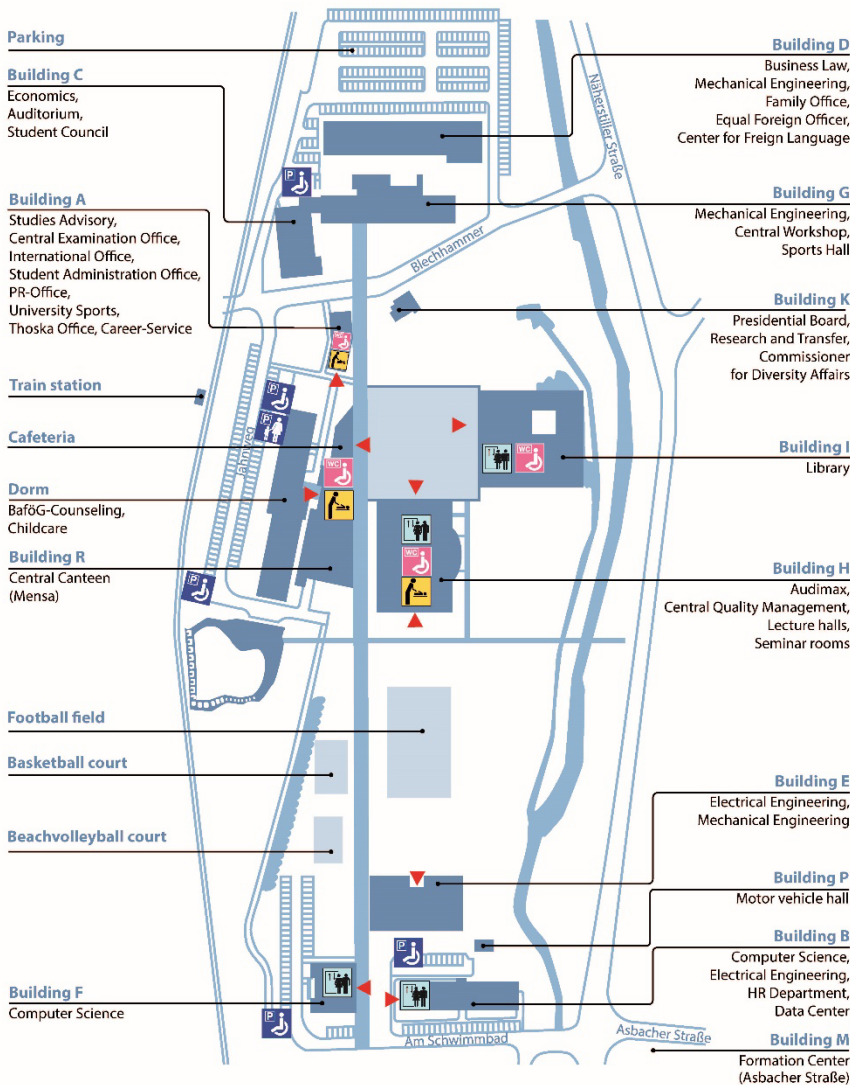

In an initial consultation, you can calmly discuss your concerns with a neutral person. You will discuss your goals for the counselling and what form of support is possible within the framework of psychosocial counselling. Further consultations may follow the initial consultation. You can remain anonymous if you wish.

Other formats include written online counselling and ongoing group sessions on various topics.
